Evidence Based Coaching Basics Workshop 2010 2-Day Training Opportunity, Tucson Arizona

August 27,28 or September 17,18

This two days of coach training includes the fundamentals of effective coaching. The information that will be covered includes the following:

- Research base that supports coaching
- Information on how adults learn and how the brain works as it relates to effective coaching
- Key elements to developing trust and rapport with others
- Listening set-asides for coaches
- Coach response behaviors such as pausing, paraphrasing, and asking invitational questions
- Three types of paraphrasing
- Constructing questions to support thinking and learning
- Opportunities for practice
- Connections between fundamental coaching skills and leadership

Faculty: Our trainers have conducted presentations to a variety of audiences and organizations, including the Quality First Coaches, the Professional Development Alliance, the United Way of Southern Arizona, Arizona Early Education Funded Regional Partnerships, Pinal Gila Community Child Services, Inc, Public Allies Arizona, participants at the Alliance for Nonprofit Management annual conference, and grantees and staff from several Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) funded programs.

Cost           $ 275 (This cost does not include food)
A limited number of partial scholarships are available.
